Train Wrecked.

MOLEAN (N. Y.) April 30.—A passenger train on the New York & Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked near Whitehouse, ten miles east of here, this morning by the spreading of the rails. The mail and baggage cars and two passenger coaches, containing about forty passengers, rolled down a twenty-foot embankment. No one was killed outright, but seventeen of those injured will die.

Cattleman Laid Low.

ALAMOSA (Col.) May 1.—John Beck and John Cross became involved in a quarrel over cattle on their ranches. Cross came to town to have Beck arrested for assault. Beck followed him and killed him while on horseback.

Republicans Ahead.

TACOMA, May 1.—City election was held to-day. It resulted in the election of Drum, democrat, Mayor. The republicans elected the rest of the ticket with the exception of City Attorney. They also elected all Councilmen, but it is claimed that republican tickets for those offices were illegal on account of omission of length of term for which Councilmen were to hold office.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS.

A special to a Cincinnati paper says a conflagration is now raging at Trenton, Kentucky. Sixteen buildings are already destroyed.

William Wilner, a machinist in Chicago, murdered his wife on Monday night and then suicided, because she refused him money for drink.

In Kansas City yesterday, Susie McFall, a young girl, jealous of her lover, attempted to suicide by the morphine route. The city physician pumped ten grains of the drug out of her and she is all right.

Internal Improvement Fund.

The act that admitted Oregon into the Union, also granted to the state to be used in making internal improvements, give per centum of all money received for the sale of government lands within the state, after all expenses of the sale have been paid. The amount due Oregon in 1884, 5, 6 and 7 has not yet been collected, and the amount for 1884 and '85 has reverted to the government, through being overlooked by the governor. The comptroller of the treasury write to the executive office of this state that there is now due this state $41,028.69, and that $22,707.13 of this, which had reverted to the treasury, was reported to congress for re-appropriation to Oregon's credit. The balance, $18,321.55 will be forwarded by draft soon to the governor.

The "Pale Face."

This is the generic designation of the white race bestowed by our copper-colored brother, the "noble savage." The Caucasian, though many shades lighter, is not necessarily pallid. But when his cheeks have the parchment-colored tint, and his cheeks the hollowiness indicative of a want of bodily stamina, he well deserves the appellation of "pale face." These facial indications should suggest a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters; an acknowledged rehabilitator of a failing strength and renewer of bodily substance. It is derived exclusively from botanical sources—is pure and efficient. Its invigorating action is prompt, thorough and speedily felt. Can the like be said of most tonics? Scarcely. Appetite, as well as the ability to satisfy it without subsequent discomfort, is renewed by it, and it effectually tones the liver and bowels. It fortifies the system against malaria and rheumatism, and remedies nervousness and kindred complaints.

SOUTHERN OREGON.

Its Country Described and Progress of Improvement—How a Probi Revivalist Rakes the Democrats Into his Net.

ED. CAPITAL JOURNAL.—Here are a few hasty notes of travel. The state central committee having arranged for a tour through Jackson county, (a democratic stronghold,) to wind up with a nominating convention for a county ticket at Medford, I started on the 25th inst., at 6:30 p. m. on the California express, for Gold Hill. The democrats not having furnished any money for election purposes (no. I mean the republicans, because now we shall be called "a republican aid society," since our converts are from the democratic party), I could not afford a sleeper, but took a nap by spells, cramped up on my seat. Passed Oakland and Roseburg by night, and will do so on return, so cannot see that part of the country.

Morning revealed Grant's Pass, much grown and improved during the last few years. The busy sugar pine mill has been removed, the timber having been worked out in this neighborhood. For early breakfast arrived at Gold Hill; this is a railroad and mining town, rather dull because the best producing quartz mine, that was paying well, has been temporarily shut down. A game of freeze out, as I understand, between the co-owners. The farming land around here is limited in space but good in quality. A large farm with considerable improvements is under negotiation for $40,000, for a number of New Yorkers to settle on.

Fruit does well here. A large ditch, sixteen feet at the base, is being surveyed to bring water to town for mining and manufacturing purposes. A cannery is also seriously talked of by Lusk, of San Francisco. The spirit of enterprise in this little place, as in all Southern Oregon, is commendable. It should be imitated by Salem, which has so many more advantages, and is surrounded by so large an area of tillable and fertile soil.

I spoke in the school in daytime and to adults at night. Rev. J. R. Roberts, a Southern M. E. preacher, took me on to Sam's valley, a very attractive little strip of country. A Californian has recently bought a farm here of a few hundred acres, for $10,000, and he is raising large fields of alfalfa for his fine stock of cows and horses. Stopped at the school and gave the children half an hour's talk on education and prohibition. (Our party is after the coming voters.) Also gave a political address at night.

Drove next day through a gravelly and chaparral country, with very little grass this dry season. Many settlers have taken up land, who have built rather poor shanties; but occasionally good patches of land are seen, which, under cultivation, look well. Peach trees look thrifty, no curl leaf, and as yet uninjured by frost, except the very early kind of that fruit. But the growers never feel quite safe here till the middle of May. The apples are said to be blooming quite shyly.

Talked thirty minutes to a large and interesting school called Antioch, out in the chaparral. Also addressed a large audience in the evening, who were so slow in getting together that we did not begin till 9 o'clock. My audience so encouraged me by their close attention, that I continued my address till nearly 11. Drove ten miles and reached bed by 2 a. m. Here my excellent friend Mr. Roberts left us, affirming his allegiance to the prohibition party, and severing his long connection with the democrats. Rev. E. G. Jones, baptist, a southerner and democrat, and Rev. N. C. Howlett, ditto, also joined our ranks. They will be delegates to the county convention. Elders Martin, Peterson and Fleming, also old democrats, took this step some time ago.

I was introduced to a one-day old democratic convert to the probi party, and was congratulating myself that my "burning eloquence" had won him over, when, lo! it turned out that instead of attending my meeting he had been to the democratic primary, where the sight of so much drinking and inebriety had caused a political divorce right then and there. Of course, he could not reconcile himself to going into the republican fold, and so he enlisted under the temperance banner. He was nominated by the probis for county commissioner.

On Saturday evening spoke at Eagle Point to a crowded house, and obtained a number of names for the club. Spent Sunday at Mound school house with Elder Peterson, preaching thrice. Here I visited some new comers from California who have bought a home. They report very dry weather in Central California, and predict short crops. They say that along the railroad line towards Oregon, beyond Redding and Shasta, land is being taken up rapidly and settled where irrigation is possible. Marion county ought to advertise down there our marvelous cheap lands, considering its excellent quality, never failing crops, and its many other advantages. An old neighbor of mine, in Santa Barbara, an extensive merchant, has just bought a home here, ten miles from a railroad, on the ragged edge of "the desert," for his wife's health.

Dined at Medford with one of my church members, whom I knew in California. Mr. Fowler, who has come up with his family and expects to stay. For a specimen of a red hot, ex-democratic probi, commend me to him. And if you want to wave a red rag in his face and make him indignant, just intimate that not many democrats turn prohibitionists, or express a doubt of their sincerity when they do. Whew! A full ticket was nominated to-day, and an active canvass is to be made.

It is very dry here, and a north wind is blowing. Grass and grain will suffer soon if rain does not come. The signs are not promising. Mr. Walker was lately visiting his brother in Salem, and expressed surprise at the low price of land there. He believes the boom will reach Willamette valley, and land will advance to $100 an acre.

First Public Concert.

Miss Frankie P. Jones, the accomplished pianist and teacher of the conservatory of music, assisted by her pupils, will give her first public concert at the Opera House on Wednesday May 9th. The program will be varied and highly pleasing and entertaining. She will also receive assistance from Mrs. W. A. Wetzel, the sweet singer who has so often delighted the music loving people of Portland, and by the best local talent including Miss Nettie Louise Brown, Prof. Z. M. Parvin, Mr. James Ross and Prof. J. M. Coomer. Reserved seats are now on sale at Patton's, and tickets should be purchased early to avoid the rush, and to get good seats.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work of my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's new discovery for consumption I would have died of lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in the best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at H. W. Cox's drug store.
